Communication between cultures

作者：Larry Samovar, Richard Porter等人

➤ COMMUNICATION IS A DYNAMIC PROCESS

交际是一个动态的过程

1. The words indicate that communication is an ongoing activity that has no beginning or end. Phrased in slightly different terms, communication is not static.

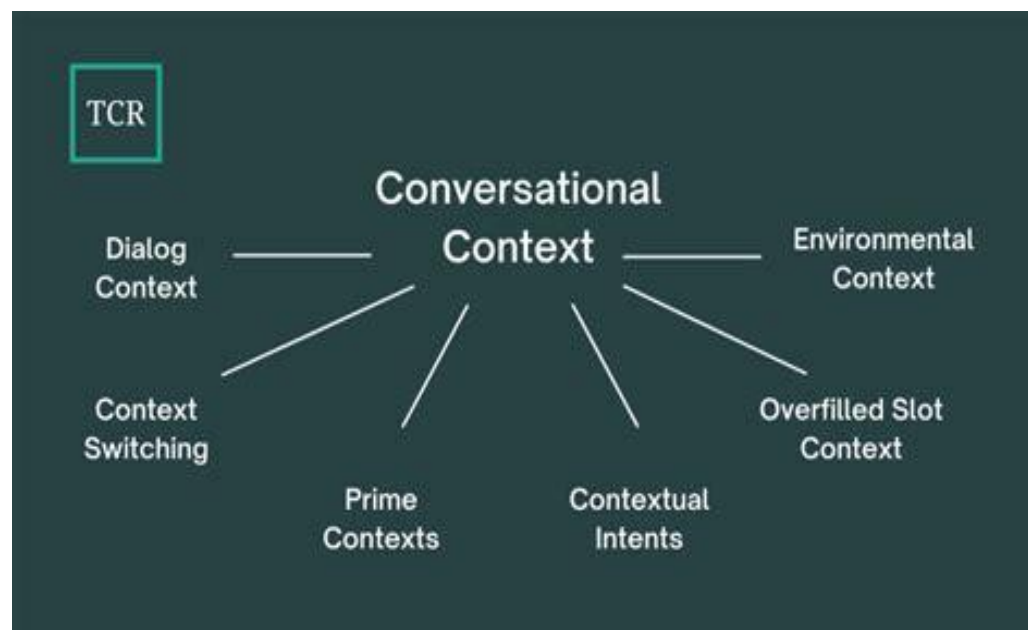

交际一直在进行中。

2. Communication is a dynamic process because once a word or action is produced, it cannot be retracted. 交际行为无法撤回。

3. Sending and receiving messages involves a host of variables. Each of the parties to the transaction is reacting to the other by seeing, listening, talking, thinking, and perhaps smiling and touching the other, all at once. 交际通过多种方式进行。

➤ COMMUNICATION IS CONTEXTUAL 交际具有情境性

The setting and environment help determine the words and actions you generate and the meanings you give to the symbols you receive. In addition, whether consciously or subconsciously, context plays a role in establishing which behavior is favored and which is deemed inappropriate. In most instances, the context involves four aspects: (1) the number of people who are interacting, (2) the environmental context, (3) the occasion, and (4) the time. 环境和场合对交际行为有重要影响。交际情境主要包括：1) 交际人数；2) 环境；3) 场合；4) 时机。

➤ COMMUNICATION IS COMPLEX 交际具有复杂性

Communication can involve controlling, informing, persuading, and relating to others. During a single interaction there are six “people” involved: (1) the person that you imagine yourself to be, (2) the other person as you perceive him or her, (3) your notion of what you believe the other person thinks of you, (4) the other person as he or she supposes he or she is, (5) how the other person perceives you, and (6) the other person’s notion of how he or she believes you perceive him or her.

Communication becomes even more complex when cultural dimensions are added.

Although all cultures use symbols to share their realities, the specific realities and the symbols employed are often quite different. In one culture, you smile in a casual manner as a form of greeting; in another, you bow formally in silence; and in yet another, you acknowledge your friend with a full embrace. 加入了文化因素的交际更加复杂。

MISCONCEPTIONS ABOUT HUMAN COMMUNICATION

➤ Communication Can Solve Problems. 交际不是灵丹妙药。

Yet the power and sway of communication are frequently overstated. a cultural perspective, a reliance on communication to solve all problems is basically a Western idea. As Wood points out, “Not all societies think it is wise or useful to communicate about relationships or to talk extensively about feelings”. 不是所有国家和民族都认为沟通可以解决问题。

➤ Some People Are Born ive Communicators. 后天练习也能成为交际高手

Some people may have a facility and personality for feeling comfortable around other people, yet every individual can develop the basic skills to be a successful communicator. For example, learning how to compromise, show empathy, and listen intently can be learned. 交际能力可以后天学习培养。

➤ The Message You Send Message Received 传递信息不代表成功交际

This myth assumes that people are like computers and that human communication simply involves the direct transfer of information. This view does not allow for variables such as each person's background, memory, values, beliefs, vocabulary, and the like to be in operation when people communicate. 交际的结果并不总是成功的。

II. Intercultural Communication Theories

跨文化交际理论

2. Communication between cultures

Hall points out, “Culture is communication and communication is culture.” The reason for the duality is that you “learn” your culture via communication and that, at the same time, communication is a reflection of your culture.

1. Hofstede's Cultural Dimensions 文化六维度

- Power Distance refers to the extent to which less powerful members of a society accept and expect power to be distributed unequally (Malaysia has a high power distance while Austria has a low power distance)
- Individualism vs. Collectivism describes the degree to which individuals are integrated into groups (United States is highly individualistic while Guatemala is highly collectivistic)
- Masculinity vs. Femininity refers to the distribution of emotional roles between the genders (Japan is a masculine society while Sweden is a feminine society)
- Uncertainty Avoidance deals with a society's tolerance for ambiguity and uncertainty (Greece has a high uncertainty avoidance while Singapore has a low uncertainty avoidance)
- Long-Term vs. Short-Term Orientation describes the time horizon people in a society display (China is long-term oriented while Nigeria is short-term oriented)
- Indulgence vs. Restraint is related to the gratification versus control of basic human desires (Mexico is an indulgent culture while Latvia is a restrained culture)

2. Ethnocentrism, Cultural Relativism, and Stereotyping

- Ethnocentrism (文化中心论) is the tendency to view one's own culture as superior to others and to judge other cultures by the standards of one's own
 - Ethnocentrism can lead to misunderstandings and conflicts in cross-cultural interactions (an American businessman may view a Middle Eastern counterpart's tardiness as a sign of disrespect, while in the Middle Eastern culture, punctuality is not as highly valued)
- Cultural Relativism (文化相对主义) is the principle that an individual's beliefs and practices should be understood in the context of one's own culture rather than judged against the criteria of another
 - Cultural relativism encourages understanding and respect for cultural differences (a cultural relativist would seek to understand the reasons behind a particular cultural practice rather than immediately judging it as wrong or inferior)
- Stereotyping (文化刻板印象) is the process of ascribing characteristics to people based on their membership in a particular group
 - Stereotypes can be positive or negative and often oversimplify reality (assuming all Italians are passionate and expressive or all Germans are punctual and efficient)

3. Cultural Identity Theory 文化认同理论

Cultural identity refers to a person's sense of belonging to a particular culture or group. This process involves learning about and accepting traditions, heritage, language, religion, ancestry, aesthetics, thinking patterns and social structures of a culture. Normally, people internalize the beliefs, values, norms, and social practices of their culture and identify themselves with that culture. The culture becomes a part of their self-concept.

文化认同不仅仅是个体对自己文化的认同感，也是对他人文化的理解与互动的方式。这一理论通常强调文化、社会和个人身份之间的复杂关系。文化认同理论探讨个体如何与其他文化群体区分开来，通过认同自己的文化来建立“内群体”意识，同时也可能与其他文化群体形成“外群体”对比。人们往往通过比较来强化自身的文化认同感。

4. Cultural Accommodation Theory 文化适应理论

Cultural Accommodation Theory is a concept primarily developed within the framework of Communication Accommodation Theory (CAT), which was proposed by sociolinguists Howard Giles and Robert St. Clair. This theory focuses on how individuals adjust or “accommodate” their communication styles in response to cultural differences during interaction. It suggests that people modify their behavior, language, and communication strategies to either converge (convergence) with or diverge from the cultural norms and expectations of others (divergence). The goal of accommodation is to reduce social distance and enhance mutual understanding, respect, and cooperation between cultures.

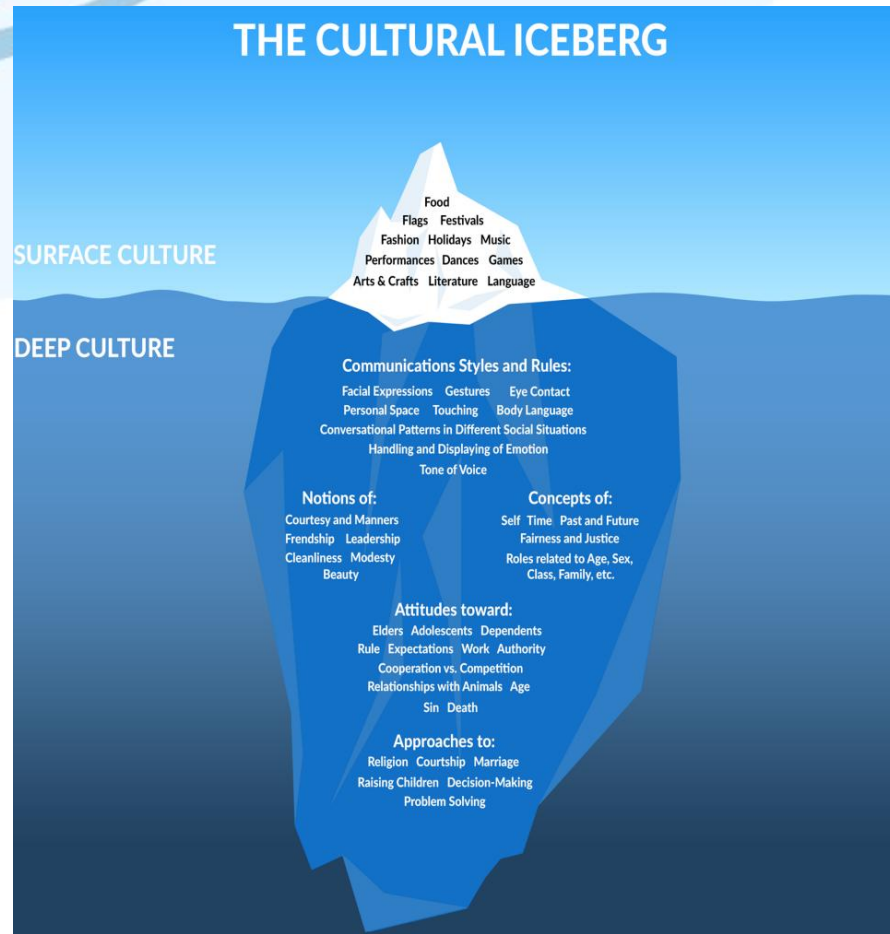

这一理论主要关注跨文化交流中的适应过程，尤其是在移民、留学、国际工作等跨文化情境中，个体或群体如何在不同文化环境中调整自己的行为、思维 and 价值观，以逐渐融入新的文化环境。

5. Similarity-attraction Principle of CAT 相似-吸引原则

Similarity-attraction is one of the biggest contributors to the theory of communication accommodation. The similarity-attraction theory posits that "The more similar our attitudes and beliefs are to those of others, the more likely it is for them to be attracted to us." Convergence through verbal and non-verbal communication is one of the mechanisms that we can use to become more similar to others, increasing their attraction towards us.

相似吸引原则（Similarity-Attraction Principle）指的是人们倾向于与自己文化背景、价值观、兴趣或行为方式相似的人建立联系和互动。换句话说，个体更容易与那些具有相似文化特征的人产生吸引力并建立更紧密的关系。这一原则在文化适应过程中起着重要作用，尤其是在跨文化交流和适应新环境时。

6. Cultural Iceberg Theory 文化冰山理论

The concept of the cultural iceberg was coined in 1976 by Edward T. Hall, who suggested that culture is analogous to an iceberg in that only about 10% of the iceberg is visible at any given time and that a large part of it is hidden beneath the surface.

文化冰山的两层结构：

1. 表层文化 (Visible Culture) :

这是文化的“冰山浮出水面”部分，即文化中容易被观察到、理解和感知的元素，包括：

- 语言：语言是最直观的文化特征，不同语言的使用方式、表达习惯等反映了不同文化。
- 衣着与食物：服饰、饮食习惯、饮食方式等。
- 节日和庆典：如节庆活动、仪式、庆祝方式等。
- 艺术和音乐：文化产品，如绘画、电影、音乐风格等。

这些表面文化的元素是我们最容易接触和认识的部分，但它们往往只是文化的表象。

2. 深层文化 (Invisible Culture) :

这是文化的“冰山下沉部分”，指的是不易直接看到和理解的文化元素，包括：

- 价值观和信仰：社会对对错、善恶、正义的判断标准，以及人们的道德信仰和宗教观念。
- 思维方式与认知模式：文化在思考、决策、问题解决等方面的差异，如直线思维或循环思维、重视个人还是集体等。
- 社会结构与人际关系：家庭结构、社会角色、权力距离、等级观念等。
- 非语言交流：如肢体语言、眼神交流、语气和表情等。

3. How to achieve intercultural communication?

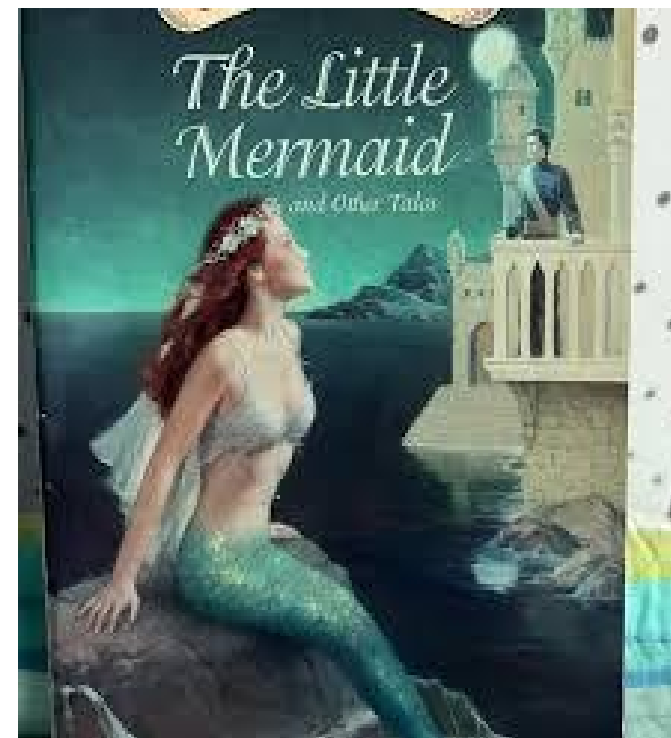

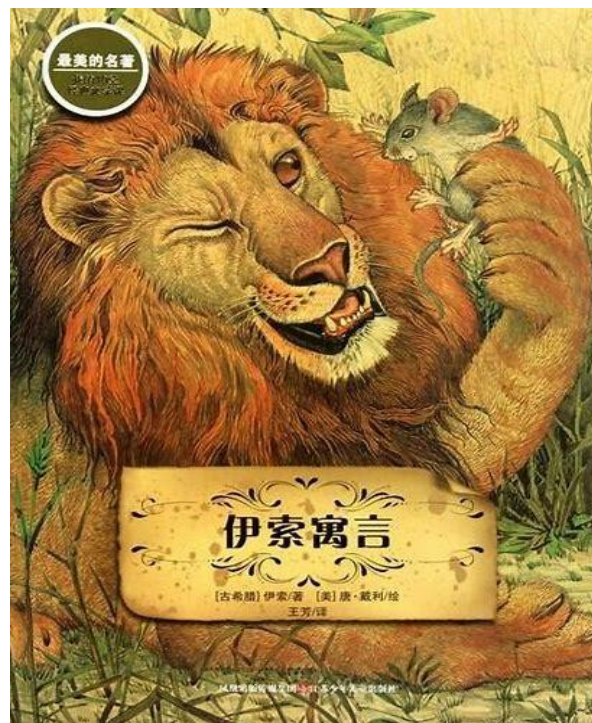

1) Intercultural communication is based on symbols.

Without symbols we would not be able to store the collective wisdom of past generations, and consequently we would be prone to repeat the mistakes of the past. Symbols tie together people who otherwise might not be part of a unified group.”

2) Culture is spread through folklore, legends and myths.

As Imada and Yussen point out, “Narratives are one of the oldest and universal forms of communication in human societies” and also “play an important role in the reproduction of cultural values.” 叙事是人类最古老的普遍的交际方式。

3) Culture is spread through Art.

A trip to any art museum quickly reveals how the art of a culture is both a method of passing on culture and a reflection of that culture. Art forms are not merely a mirror of culture, but art also heightens cultural values that members of a culture hold in common. Songs, dances, paintings, carvings, and so on—we may discover much about different worldviews and religious beliefs, as well as political ideas, social values, kinship structures, economic relations, and historical memory.”

4) Culture is spread through Media.

From television to online discussions to blogs to social networks, people share themselves and their culture. Newspapers, magazines, television, radio, film and the Internet transmit persuasive messages on the nature of reality.” The overabundance of media in daily life is perhaps most evident when applied to young people.

III. Cultural Soft Power 文化软实力概念

What is hard power, soft power and smart power? Why does China tend to use soft power in global communication.

WHAT IS SOFT POWER

Soft power is the ability to cooperate rather than coerce (Nye, 2012). It involves shaping the preferences of others through appeal and attraction. Soft power is non-coercive, using culture, political values, and foreign policies to enact change.

Soft power contrasts with “hard power” - the use of coercion and payment. Soft power can be wielded not just by states but also by all actors in international politics. 人人都可参与到国家软实力的传播中。

Cultural Soft Power 文化软实力

文化软实力是软实力的主要表现形式。文化软实力是指从文化本身所弘扬的创造生存的力量。要理解文化软实力的内涵，首先，文化可以是一种刚性的力量，也可以是一种柔性的力量。文化一旦成为一种柔性的力量，就可以创造凝聚力、表达吸引力、增加影响力和竞争力（张骥等，2019）。

Cultural soft power is the primary manifestation of soft power. Cultural soft power refers to the creative power of culture in promoting survival and development. To understand the essence of cultural soft power, we must first recognize that culture can be both a rigid and a flexible force. Once culture becomes a flexible force, it can create cohesion, express attraction, and enhance influence and competitiveness.

Components of Cultural Soft Power

文化软实力的构成要素

1. 价值观念 (Values): 文化软实力的深层要素。例如，为了提高中华文化价值观的全球影响力，传播中国“平等互信、包容互鉴、和平发展、合作共赢”的外交理念，把中国特色的国家治理理念、经验和全球治理理念传播出去。
2. 理想信仰 (Beliefs): 文化软实力的重要组成部分，是精神核心和向导。当前，建设中国式现代化和实现中华民族伟大复兴的中国梦，是凝聚全国人民的思想和信仰。
3. 语言文字 (Language): 文化软实力的输出方式和重要载体。汉语的国际化是提高中国国际影响力的主要手段。
4. 文化产品 (Cultural products): 是文化软实力的重要推手，可以吸引其他国家受众，增加对本国文化的广泛认同。当前，我们要输出具有中国特色、中国风格、中国气派的优秀文化产品，包括影视媒体作品、工艺美术作品、和各类文化相关产品。
5. 国家政策 (Policies): 外交政策是国家文化软实力的重要体现，有助协调国际关系，建立良好的国际形象。

Key points in improving China's cultural soft power

- Reflections on China's history: China's Rise and Fall is closely connected with the rise and fall of soft power 国家的地位与软实力成正比。
- The role of hard power and soft power are complementary. 硬实力与软实力彼此互补。
- China's soft power has Chinese characteristics. 中国文化软实力有中国特色。
- The core of China's soft power is the core Socialist values. 核心是社会主义价值观。
- Humans are the soul and subjects of China's soft power. 中国人是中国文化软实力的灵魂和主体。

Discussion

Drawing on above theories, how should we improve China's cultural soft power?
